

Jan. 10, 2005,

Dear Bobbie, I apologize for not writing sooner, but the holidays kept me very busy. There are some pictures of Lucy! She has not had a stranger here at all. She loved us, her other dogs & our home. She is very happy & healthy here.

She is getting to be very red, & we are happy about that. She & we are happy in the bedroom goes pretty in papers in the well or she will bring the well (see the see the Superman back door to go out.)

We really love her, Thank you!!
Random Mathies would like to be in the Spring. Is there any chance of that?
Carol.
